

Jonathan Leath Bio

Jonathan Leath, MSOL, is the co-pastor of Converge Church, a thriving, multicultural, and multigenerational church in Moorestown, NJ. For 11 years he was the founder and pastor of Destiny Church before he merged his congregation with Maranatha Christian Fellowship to form Converge Church.

Before pastoring his church, Jonathan served for 9 years as the Executive Administrator of Agape Family Worship Center, in Rahway, NJ. He is the CEO of Leath & Associates, LLC, a leadership development firm. He is also the Executive Director of DiscoverHOPE CDC, a youth development non profit that works with underprivileged children with promise through a two-week summer camp. He is the author of, "YOLO You Only Lead One: 8 Principles for Leading Yourself Before You Lead Others"

Jonathan received his Bachelor of Science in Marketing from North Carolina A&TSU and his Masters of Science in Organizational Leadership from Cairn University in Langhorne, PA. Additionally, he received his Executive Leadership for Ministers Certificate from Howard University School of Business.

He is married to his wife Kamili and they have four children and they reside in Moorestown, NJ.