

Antoinette Douglas is an Education Leader, Professional Development (PD) Specialist, and Co-Director for SISTERS LLC, who values, service, integrity, equity, and excellence. With more than 20 years of experience in education and community service, Antoinette is a leadership and training expert who delivers high-energy keynotes and presentations that empowers individuals to tap into their own personal greatness.

Antoinette has a knack for making meaningful connections with audiences and an insatiable appetite for helping others realize and maximize their natural talents and skills. Antoinette knows how to rock a platform, connect with a crowd and provide training so that others can effectively do the same.

Antoinette's quirky humor compels audiences to laugh while they learn. She engages groups from the moment she steps in front of them and leaves them with empowering tools and focused mindsets that they will use long after the event has ended. Antoinette is passionate about people, leadership, and education for young children.

Antoinette earned her degree from Trinity Washington University and is a Certified Trainer with International Accreditors for Continuing Education and Training( IACET). Her strong background in learning, development, and managing teams makes her the perfect fit for dynamic conference engagement.