

Pastor DeLisa Lewis is the Executive Pastor of the Transformation Christian Worship Center where she is committed to the vision of her husband, Bishop Rob Lewis, Senior Pastor. Pastor DeLisa was ordained an Elder and elevated to Pastor in November 2017. As the Executive Pastor she assists in multiple areas of the organization, and spearheads W.A.R. a ministry geared to the development and advancement of woman through practical biblical principles. She is also the founder of a women's movement called I Am Built For This created to encourage, equip and edify women to be all that God has purposed them to be. She is also the co-founder of Marriages that Win, a dynamic marriage ministry with her husband which through workshops, seminars, conferences and weekend getaways they coach couples on how to make the most of their covenant relationships with the belief that any marriage can win no matter what challenges exists. She has three biological children and three bonus children and eight grandchildren. She has an immense passion for God's people and is a woman who does not believe in avoiding your issues but rather meeting them head on to bring about change and increase in your life.
