

Dr. Jacqueline V. Mayfield, DHA, MBA

Author | Money Management | Debt Elimination Strategist | Financial Literacy Expert

Jacqueline V. Mayfield is affectionately known as “Dr. V.” She specializes in transforming the financial well-being of people of all ages. She is the author of a faith-based step-by-step system and practical guide that provides a blueprint to assist with paying bills on-time, eliminating debt, and developing a plan for future spending. She has also developed processes to bridge the communication gap between generations to ensure that no one is overlooked through the money management process.

Dr. V. is a business leader, patient advocate and instructor who has been an entrepreneur for more than twenty-five years. She is licensed and certified to provide families with solutions to maximize their financial lives. Dr. V. holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Organizational Management from Eastern University, an MBA from Drexel University with a concentration in Healthcare Administration, and a Doctorate in Healthcare Administration from Capella University. She has held several senior management and leadership positions while working in the banking industry as a Marketing Manager for over ten years.

Dr. V. has impacted thousands of families and young people through her partnerships with the Department of Labor’s Women’s Bureau and Community Colleges of Philadelphia & Montgomery County, and Eastern University Esperanza. She was also a former co-host of the finance segment on The Empowerment Zone Radio Show on WDAS 1480 AM.

She is the mother of six children, grandmother of nine, and the wife of a survivor. Her husband, Kevin H. Mayfield, Sr., was in a traumatic automobile accident in 1999. He suffered from major trauma to the brain and his doctors said that he would not survive. Jackie knows that all things are possible for the person who believes. Today, her husband has overcome the prognosis, is breathing on his own, and is able to spend time with his family. She enjoys managing money and spending time with her family.
