

Pastor Hollie Whaley is a certified entrepreneur empowerment coach, keynote speaker, and author. She holds an MBA with 25 Years of global corporate experience. She takes the complexity of business and makes it simplistic for everyone that would like to start or build their business. She has been Pastoring with her Husband, Pastor Keith Whaley, for 4 years, and has served in ministry for over 20 years. She is a wife, mother, and is fueled with passion to fulfill God's mandate in equipping people to reach their maximum potential. She wants to see everyone operate at their full capacity. She takes special interest in the local and global community by participating in local outreaches along with leading missions in Africa. Hollie believes her greatest success is seeing others become successful. She serves her family, community, clients, and the body of Christ with a passion to see Kingdom advancement.
