

Jazmine J. Lewis is a graduate of Cairn University, formerly known as Philadelphia Biblical University with a bachelor's in bible. She is the founder and CEO of The Chosen Life Incorporated, a Non-profit dedicated to the needs of single women and children.

Jazmine is a Worship Leader, Evangelist, International Speaker, Recording Artist, Mentor and Author who prides herself in encouraging and empowering women to discover their worth and helping to propel them deeper into God. Through her own life's journey, she has learned how to walk boldly in her god given calling despite the obstacles that comes her way. She is passionate about fulfilling her god given calling of going into the world to "Get Gods People". She knows that kingdom building is key, so she will fight tooth and nail to snatch Gods people from the enemy's grip. So.... READY or NOT here she comes!
