

Lakeisa Arrington is the founder of The Experience by LA. A Purpose Pusher brand that purposely pushes men and women into designing their dreams while growing spiritually, professionally, and personally. Lakeisa's spitfire personality, tenacity, and zeal have allowed her to transform lives through Empowerment Conferences, Coaching, Consulting & Inspirational/Empowerment Books.

As a transformation coach, she's been able to help hundreds of women connect their Passion to their Purpose based on the Promises of God which leads to Prosperity in every area of their life. As a Human Resource Consultant, she's been able to help several companies build teams based on commitment and not just compliance.

She has helped hundreds of women since 2016 understand that once an individual connects their Passion to their Purpose based on the Promises of God the Experience is life-changing; that individual has the power to impact lives on a global level.

Lakeisa has taught many individuals as well as corporations that Maximizing Relationships, Building Trust, and Strategic Solutions & Training is essential for Community & Corporate Growth.

Lakeisa firmly believes that it is the Grace of God that keeps her as she blends being a wife to Shawn Arrington, Mother to Sinaya, Mikayla & Zoey, grandmother, minister, dream designer, transformation coach, HR consultant, and keynote speaker.

Lakeisa has 20 plus years of experience in Coaching, Mentoring, Training, Developing, and Speaking with individuals as well as groups in Christian and Corporate arenas.

Her desire is to ignite the flame within an individual or corporation and cause them to set everything they touch on fire. Lakeisa's passion and experience surrounding Human Resources & Human Connectivity have allowed her to transform thousands of lives through inspiration, affirmation & education.
