

Dr. Marcia Theadford
www.drmarciaglam squad.com

“Empowering people are so worth our effort!”

Dr. Marcia Theadford is an author, entrepreneur, intergenerational strategist, international speaker, ordained minister, and the CEO and Visionary of GLAM,(Gifted Ladies Aspiring for More), 501(c) 3 organization. Through these venues she offers strategies to help individuals develop and achieve personal, spiritual and professional growth.

Dr. Theadford is dedicated to the mission of helping individuals leap toward their destiny through an exchange of positive voices of wisdom, transformative encouragement and strategic planning. Her entrepreneur skills have launched her and her husband into a successful tee shirt business, “Tees That Bling & More.”

Her educational credentials include a BA degree in Education from Northeastern Illinois University, Master’s degree in Education from Texas Christian University, completed concentration credits toward a Masters in Pastoral Counseling from Moravian Theological Seminary before transferring to Drew University where Dr. Theadford earned her Doctorate in Ministry Theology. For over thirty years she worked in academia as a counselor, professor and department administrator.

Her latest published book and media series is entitled, “Just Pray About It! The Power to Overcome.” This has enabled her to travel throughout the United States and abroad speaking and conducting workshop focusing on prayer, purpose and positioning yourself for success. I would love to have the opportunity to share it with you, in any of your organizational venues.

Brief Ministry Profile:

The Reverend Dr. Marcia Theadford, ordained since 1995 is no stranger to the Gospel. She has devoted her life to serving Christ in both the Church and academia. She ministers throughout the United States and abroad to equip people for effective living. Her passion and involvement in ministry began at the age of thirteen when formed a teenage ministry for girls called, “I’m a Teenager Lord, Now What!” Family is important, as she is blessed to have six wonderful sons and an awesome array of grandchildren. God and her family life are her highest priorities besides being an educator, evangelist, friend, counselor, and mentor. The Lord has strengthened, guided, and helped her to heal victoriously from a crippling illness, an early divorce, domestic abuse, as well as the death of her son and grandchild. These experiences have taught her to trust God in all things. Therefore, she is willing and able to assist others in fulfilling their destiny by applying the necessary biblical attributes of wisdom, love and understanding.

The anointed pastoral mantle which Dr. Marcia and her husband Rev. Odell possess has broadened their territory and carried them throughout the United States of America. Her unique presentation of the Gospel has enabled her to minister to various denominations and organizations while demonstrating the awesome power of God's love to save, deliver, and set people free from the grips of the enemy. Other ministries have been birthed, such as: "Gathering of Friends Ministry", and "Iron Sharpens Iron" bible study. Dr. Marcia's giftings launched a television ministry called, "Conversations with Marcia."