

Christal Torres is a Human Resources professional with over 15 years of experience within the Human Resources field. She specializes in organizational development, talent and change management.

She enjoys helping her team see past the limitations they have set for themselves, and leading them to the next level within their careers.

She is a devoted and proud member of The Perfecting Church. She truly enjoys serving in the Kids Ministry and pouring into the lives of our youth.

Christal is the mother of an amazing little girl, Leah, who is 8 years old. She is passionate about her daughter and take the role of being her 1st role model seriously . She currently resides in Sewell, NJ, however she is proud to be from Camden, NJ in which she was born and raised.

Christal is proud to serve on the IGNITE Women's Empowerment board as the Partnership and Sponsorship manager and looks forward to all the new things IGNITE has in store for all its amazing women participan